The HARVEST HALL Pays Tribute To The “Diggers Of Gallipoli”

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.*

*(Extract from the poem “For the Fallen” by Laurence Binyon)
(Department of Veterans Affairs website)*

 Did you Know? ****

History of the word “ANZAC”

Historically, ANZAC (Australian and New Zealand Army Corps) was an acronym devised by Major General William Birdwood's staff in Cairo in early 1915. It was used for registering correspondence for the new corps and a rubber stamp was cut using the letters A.&N.Z.A.C.

After the landing at Gallipoli, General Birdwood requested that the position held by the Australians and New Zealanders on the peninsula be called 'Anzac' to distinguish it from the British position at Helles. Permission was also sought to name the little bay, where the majority of the corps had come ashore on 25 April 1915, 'Anzac Cove'. The letters now were upper and lower case, indicating that the original acronym had already found a use beyond that of a military code word or corps designation.

The marketing power of the word 'Anzac' itself was realised early on by astute entrepreneurs. Then there were those who genuinely sought to immortalise lost loved ones by naming their homes 'Anzac'.

Whether its use was well-intentioned or purely commercial, the word 'Anzac' could easily have been exploited, overused or misused. This was realised as early as 1916 and so legislation was passed to regulate its use and has existed ever since. (Australian Government 100 Years of ANZAC website).

The Harvest Hall is proud to include Feature Classes in this Schedule in honour of all our Diggers and in remembrance of “Gallipoli”.

Australian War Memorial Website

The Anzac Biscuit

During World War One, the friends and families of soldiers and community groups sent food to the fighting men. Due to the time delays in getting food items to the front lines, they had to send food that would remain edible, without refrigeration, for long periods of time that retained high nutritional value; the Anzac biscuit met this need.

The biscuit was first known as the Soldiers' Biscuit. The current name, Anzac Biscuit, has as much to do with Australia's desire to recognise the Anzac tradition and the Anzac biscuit as part of the staple diet at Gallipoli.

The Anzac biscuit is one of the few commodities that are able to be legally marketed in Australia using the word 'Anzac', which is protected by Federal Legislation.

Papaver Rhoëas: This poppy is a native of Europe and is notable as a symbol of fallen soldiers.

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

The Australian Comforts Fund was established in August 1916 to co-ordinate the activities of the state based patriotic funds, which were established earlier in World War I. Mainly run by women, they provided and distributed free comforts to the Australian 'fit' fighting men in all the battle zones. They became divisions of the Australian Comforts Fund. The Council of the Fund comprised two delegates from New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland and one from the states of Western Australia, South Australia and Tasmania. The Executive headquarters was located in Sydney. It ceased operation on 10 April 1920 and was reconstituted in World War II in June 1940 and ceased operation again on 27 June 1946.

* Did you Know? ****

Local women's groups in Australia sprang up early in the war to provide tobacco, cakes, puddings, condensed milk, sugar, biscuits newspapers and other 'luxury' items to supplement the Australian soldier's army rations and personal kit. These fund-raising bodies were amalgamated in 1916 to form a national body which undertook to provide 'comforts' to all Australians abroad.

Stakes diameter to be no wider than 40mm

An additional smaller stake can be used to make the waist

Use String, twine or nails to tie the frame together
