Crackup laughing at the Show

The Royal National Capital Agricultural Society is delighted to announce new entertainment appearing for the first time at the 2018 ActewAGL Royal Canberra Show: The Crackup Sisters.

The Crackup Sisters are bright, energetic and ridiculously witty. They bring a mixed-bag of comedy, whip cracking and acrobatics and tell the stories of the Australian country and its larrikin characters.

No Show is complete without the showbags and rides, the ActewAGL Farmyard Nursery, the competitions and displays, the tasty food and tempting goodies, and – of course – the fireworks on Friday and Saturday night.

There are more exciting new attractions making their debut at the Show this year, with details to be announced soon.

Pre-sale pre-purchase tickets are on sale through the Show website - www.canberrashow.org.au - and you can save 10% off the gate price until midnight on Thursday 22 February 2018. All pre-purchase tickets include free travel on ACTION buses to and from the Show.

The 2018 show will be held at Exhibition Park in Canberra from Friday 23 to Sunday 25 February.

We look forward to seeing you at the Show.
